

[Postcard from John A. Lomax to Harold Spivacke]

MAY 18 2 PM 1939 L A

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS MAIL & DEL DIV FIRST MAIL MAY 22 1939

Mr. Harold Spivacke

Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

Merryville, La. 5/18/39

Dear Mr. Spivacke:

I am assuming that you are sending the records to Merryville, La. My next address is Pine Bluff, Ark.; next Sunday and Monday, Parchman, Miss.; next Livingston, Ala. c/o Mrs. Tartt. Fifty-four records sent to you from Huntsville. The day of shipment being Sunday the Express office was not open. A friend misunderstood my directions and on Monday shipped them C.O.D. $500. His order should read charges collect. All goes well.

Miss T. and Jno. Lomax